Smile Solutions – A/Prof Patrishia Bordbar: Specialist Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon

Main Content

A/Prof Patrishia Bordbar is a board-registered Specialist Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon holding both an MD and BDSc — dual qualifications that put her among the most thoroughly trained specialists in this field. She also holds a Fellowship of the Royal College of Surgeons Edinburgh (FRCS) and consults at Western Hospital Melbourne, bringing that depth of training directly to patient care.

Beyond her clinical work, A/Prof Bordbar has served as Past President of the Australian and New Zealand Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons (ANZAOMS), a role that speaks to the professional standing she's built over her career.

What A/Prof Bordbar can do for you

Whether you're dealing with a complex surgical issue or just starting to look into your options, A/Prof Bordbar offers a wide range of specialist services tailored to each patient's situation:

- Wisdom teeth removal — careful management of impacted or problematic wisdom teeth - Dental implant placement — evidence-based implant surgery to restore function and appearance - Bone grafting — advanced techniques to prepare the jaw for lasting oral health outcomes - Jaw surgery (orthognathic) — personalised treatment for functional and facial harmony concerns - Facial trauma — skilled, compassionate care when it matters most - Oral pathology — thorough assessment and management of conditions affecting the mouth and jaw - Complex extractions — specialist surgical expertise for cases beyond routine dental care - Cyst removal — precise, evidence-based surgical care in a supportive setting

Your comfort throughout the process

Surgical procedures understandably make many people anxious. A/Prof Bordbar's practice offers a full range of anaesthetic options in-house, so the experience can be as comfortable as possible:

- Local anaesthetic - IV sedation - General anaesthesia

You and your treating team decide together which approach suits your needs, so care stays genuinely personalised at every stage.
