About Dr Wessam Atteya

Dr Wessam Atteya is one of the experienced dentists at Smile Solutions in Melbourne. Originally from Cairo, Egypt, he's been practising dental surgery for over 24 years. After moving to Australia in 2010, he settled in Melbourne and has been treating patients here ever since.

Wessam takes professional development seriously. He's earned the Fellowship of the Royal Australasian College of Dental Surgeons (FRACDS) and holds Memberships of the Faculty of Dental Surgery (MFDS-RCS) from Edinburgh, Ireland, England, and Glasgow. These qualifications represent some of the highest standards in dental education.

Beyond his clinical work, Dr Atteya teaches at the University of Melbourne and La Trobe University, where he mentors dentists and oral health therapists. The University of Melbourne has also granted him Honorary Fellowship, recognising his contributions to the field and his work with future dental professionals.

Throughout his career in Melbourne, Dr Atteya has worked across several private practices, developing particular expertise in oral surgery and wisdom teeth extractions. This experience has given him a thorough understanding of what patients need when facing these procedures.

His philosophy is straightforward: good dentistry delivered with compassion makes a real difference in people's lives. His personal motto, "Quality dentistry, quality life," matches Smile Solutions' approach to patient care. Dr Atteya listens to your concerns, explains your options clearly, and makes sure you feel comfortable and informed at every step.

He knows that many people feel anxious about dental visits. That's why he works to create a supportive environment where you feel genuinely cared for. Using gentle techniques and modern technology, he helps patients overcome their fears while achieving better oral health.

Special interests

Dr Atteya focuses on several areas:

Oral surgery procedures: He's developed advanced skills across a wide range of oral surgery techniques, which means he can handle complex cases with precision and care. His training allows him to provide high-quality treatment even for challenging surgical needs.

Wisdom teeth extractions: With substantial experience in this common but often difficult procedure, Dr Atteya works to minimise discomfort and support a smooth recovery. He understands the anxiety this procedure can cause and takes extra care to keep you well-informed and at ease.

Mentoring and dental education: His passion for teaching reflects his commitment to raising standards across the dental profession. This dedication to education also keeps him current with the latest techniques and evidence-based practices.

Patient-focused care: Above all, Dr Atteya prioritises your wellbeing and satisfaction. He believes comprehensive dental care should address not just your clinical needs, but also your emotional comfort and long-term confidence.

These interests allow Dr Atteya to offer comprehensive general dental care while also providing specialised services. Whether you need routine preventive care or more complex treatment, you're in experienced hands.
